SWATOW POSITION.
EXPORT EMBARGO ON FOOD.
LATEST NEWS FROM PORT.
At present Swatow has an embargo on the export of foodstuffs from that port. It is not known if the embargo is being enforced as a result of the temporary regulations issued by the new authorities, or as part of the anti-foreign movement. Chinese merchants who returned yesterday on the "Hydrangea" state that business conditions are returning to normal, and the situation is quiet. When the ship sailed, a number of men boarded the ship to search for foodstuffs but the speaker did not know if they were from labour unions or were empowered by the Government. The "Hydrangea" brought back general cargo and a good many passengers.

CADETS PAY $3,000.
COMPENSATION FOR KILLED JAPANESE.
WHAMPOA RIVER SEQUEL.
Compensation is reported to have been paid by the Canton Government in respect of the Japanese sailor who was killed by the Whampoa Cadets firing at a Japanese vessel, from the shore, on July 30. For the dead man, $3,000 was offered and $500 each for the two men wounded, so it is stated, on a protest being made by the Japanese Consul at Canton, and following representations.

UNRULY CONDUCT.
WEST INDIANS CONVICTED.
ASSAULT CHARGE FAILS.
Charges of disorderly conduct and assaulting a Chinese detective were preferred against four West Indians at the Kowloon Magistrate's this morning. The evidence showed that a small girl had thrown some rubbish out of a window which alighted on a Chinese passer-by. The latter remonstrated and was assaulted by one of the defendants. Later at Hung Hom Police Station they were alleged to have created a disturbance and threatened the detective. Charge of disorderly conduct only was proved and the men were fined $25 each. On the allegation of throwing rubbish, the small girl was let off, the complainant's evidence being said to be conflicting.

COLLISION ENQUIRY.
The court of enquiry into the circumstances attending a collision between the s.s. "Talthybius" and a fishing boat will sit on Friday, October 5 at 10.30 instead of Wednesday, as previously announced. The composition of the court is as follows: Commander C. R. H. Harvey, R.N., Superintendent, Charts Depot; Capt. T. Croft (s.s. "Mausang"), Capt. P. Gill (s.s. "Hafong"), Capt. Shearen (s.s. "Halvard").

ALLEGED BRIBERY.
MOTOR CAR DRIVER CHARGED.
A Chinese motor car driver was charged at the Central Magistrate's this morning with leaving his car unattended and offering a bribe of $1 to an Indian constable. The constable stated in evidence that he saw the motor car left at Queen's Road Central yesterday without an attendant. The driver returned later and was informed that he would be summoned. The money was then forced into his pocket with a request to keep it and have a drink. The case was remanded, bail being allowed on $40.

NOT OPEN.
STOCK EXCHANGE REPORT PREMATURE.
LOCAL OPINION.
The report which appeared a few days ago that the Hongkong Stock Exchange was to open this morning was not correct, the contrary decision having been reached as a result of a meeting of the Exchange, a "China Mail" representative was informed upon enquiry to-day. The consensus of opinion in Ice House Street seems to be that although there has lately been appreciable increased movement in shares, the volume of business and prices fetched are not sufficient to justify opening the market. The broking community are awaiting the announcement of the lines of administration by the Hongkong Government of the loan from Home and hopes run high of a policy in favour of advances upon local share securities which, it is thought, would considerably relieve the situation, particularly from the point of view of some of the native banks who are said to be asking clients for more margin on share securities. Interesting, as indicating a faith in Hongkong, is the report of a broker who told a "China Mail" representative that much of the buying of local shares of the last week emanated from the outposts, Straits Settlements, etc. An official of the Stock Exchange told the reporter that although the report of an opening had been premature such opening of the Stock Exchange would not, in his opinion, be long delayed.

GAMBLING CHARGE.
CHINESE ROULETTE IN COURT.
A QUEER WITNESS.
A Northern Chinese who entered the witness box at the Central Magistrate's this morning to give evidence on behalf of a man charged with gambling created an amusing scene by making it appear that he had come to a theatrical performance. The interpreter reprimanded him, at which he laughed all the more, and he made a hurried exit from the box after repeating a few words of the oath. Repeated efforts were made to bring the man to realise his surroundings, but they had no effect, and the Magistrate Mr. S. B. B. McElderry ordered him to leave the Court. In the case of the man who was charged with keeping a roulette table, Divisional Inspector Ogg stated that the accused was convicted and fined $5 on Saturday for the same offence, when the apparatus was returned to him. A Chinese detective stated in evidence that he came upon a crowd of people round a table on which was placed the roulette apparatus. The stakes were one cent pieces, and a packet of cigarettes. When accused by witness, the accused offered him a packet of cigarettes as a bribe. The case was adjourned until tomorrow for further enquiries.

SUSPECT ARRESTED.
MURDER OF INDIAN CONSTABLE.
KOWLOON CITY INCIDENT.
The murder of an Indian constable at Ngau Shi Wan on July 8 was recalled at the Kowloon Magistrate's this morning when a Chinese was formally charged with the crime and remanded for one week. It will be remembered that the constable was detailed to watch a man who had been caught with stolen firewood whilst other officers went up the hillside. On their return they found the constable lying on the ground with bullet wounds, and he died in hospital. A search for the assailant has resulted in the arrest of the man now charged with murder.

STRIKERS KILLED?
CHINESE HOSTILITY TO PICKETS.
FARMER USES HIS POLE.
Reports of open hostility, and the loss of life in at least one instance, between Chinese strike pickets and the civil population, have reached Hongkong during the week-end. THREE STRIKERS KILLED? (An Occasional Correspondent.)
Macao, October 4.
It is reported from Chinshan that strike pickets had the worse of a brawl with farmers in Chinese territory, resulting in the death of three strikers. Early yesterday morning, a farmer was stated to be coming into Macao with vegetables. On nearing the border he was challenged by pickets. He threw down his two baskets and moved away. On three men of the picket coming up, he belaboured them with his bamboo pole until all three were badly bruised and unable to stand. Even with the pickets down, the farmer is alleged to have continued the assault until, so it is stated, life was extinct in each case. None of the pickets was armed. Shots Fired.
In the district of Po On (which adjoins the New Territory) trouble is believed to have broken out between armed pickets and the farmers' volunteers. Feeling has been running high for some time owing to the prohibition of export of products to Hongkong and consequent starvation. Firing is said to have broken out between the rival factions. Canton Incident.
A passenger who returned on Saturday by the "Honam" relates an incident which he witnessed on the West Bund. He says that among the foodstuffs sent up to Shameen from Hongkong was beef, in quarters, the dripping of which was cut off and often thrown into the river. Some of the very poor Chinese are said to have dived in the river for the dripping. On going ashore the divers were caught by strike pickets who set upon the divers for picking up cast-off food. One man was tied up on the Bund and beaten for half an hour.

SOVIET CITIZENS.
CONDITIONS OF REQUEST AMNESTY. (Reuter's Service.)
Moscow, Oct. 4.
The Council of Commissaries has issued a decree that former prisoners of war and interned persons of the old Imperial and Red armies, also participants in risings of White armies who come under conditions of the amnesty shall lose their citizenship if they neglect to apply for restoration of citizenship within the period laid down by the decree. This did not apply to persons who have not renewed their citizenship owing to lack of Soviet representatives in the country of their residence.

CHEUNG CHAU NOTES
The local Government boys' school has been re-opened and seems to be well attended. A school for the younger members of the Missionary families was started yesterday (Friday) in house No. 15. Under ordinary conditions the youngsters would be at work in Canton at this time. A change in the launch time table has been made as from yesterday. Intending day or week-end visitors should take note. The "Cheung Chau" is now taken off the run, except for the evening trip. She has been lying idle in the harbour. The new time table is as follows: From Hongkong, Mondays only, at 6.30 a.m.; Saturdays only, at 5 p.m. From Hongkong, every day, at 11.15 a.m. and 1.15 p.m. From Cheung Chau, Mondays only, at 6.30 a.m.; Saturdays only, at 5 p.m.

BLIND HOME.
TO-DAY'S SALE OF WORK.
LADY POLLOCK'S PRAISE.
There was a large attendance at St. John's Cathedral Hall this morning when a sale of work in aid of the Kowloon Home for the Blind was opened. The proceedings began by the girls of the Home singing a hymn accompanied by their orchestra under Mr. S. Paul. A prayer was offered by the Rev. T. B. Powell, and the sale was then opened by Lady Pollock. Lady Pollock made a graceful speech in which she called attention to the admirable work done by Miss Beswick, who was in charge of the Home, and the excellence of the work turned out by the scholars. She said that although we could not speak their language, and so could hardly express our thanks, the scholars were so susceptible of influence that they would realise how sympathetic we were to them in their affliction. She congratulated the scholars on their singing and playing, and also thanked Mr. Paul for the great interest he displayed in the work of the Home. There were a number of stalls on which were displayed table covers, embroideries, knitted work and other articles which had been done by the blind inmates. All the articles were skilfully executed, and so excellent has been the work of the scholars that several parcels have already been sent to the Wembley Exhibition. The sale will continue until 6 o'clock this evening. Amongst the ladies assisting at the stalls are Mesdames Blanchett, Gerken, Hailey-Bell, Wood, Hegarty, Noll and Arrowsmith.

PEACE DELEGATES.
MERCHANTS RETURNING TO HONGKONG.
NO CONCRETE PROPOSAL.
No proposal that can be described as concrete has been put forward as the result of Hongkong delegation of Chinese merchants to Canton. Some of the delegates returned yesterday and others are due back this week. They are to prepare a document reporting their activities in Canton, such report to be presented to a meeting of District Commercial Associations—the general guild having sponsored the peace delegation—to be held at 7 p.m. to-morrow. Summed up briefly the position is that the delegates desired to confine themselves to asking for communication to be resumed whereas the Canton Strike Executive wished to include in the discussion a number of points that can hardly be called relevant. Unless an improvement results from the conference (in Canton) of last night, it is difficult to see where a settlement is going to start. The strikers are reported to have put forward terms, in addition to those published last week, such as the free use of Chinese subsidiary coin in Hongkong, the liberty of deported strikers to return, etc.

ABERDEEN SHOP.
SUBJECT OF LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.
An arrangement entered into between a tenant firm of premises at 57, Main Street, Aberdeen, and another firm by which the latter firm entered into possession for the subject of proceedings at the Summary Court this morning. The question for the Court to decide was whether the document drawn up between these parties was an assignment. His Lordship said that the landlord must have known what was going on as the change was advertised in the newspapers and posters were exhibited in the window of the shop. The plaintiff's claim was that the premises had been unlawfully and forcibly entered by the tenant, and that the landlord was liable for the loss of the premises.

NATIONAL DAY.
PORTUGUESE CONSUL AT HOME.
REPUBLIC ANNIVERSARY.
To-day being the 15th anniversary of the establishment of the Portuguese Republic, the Consul-General for Portugal was at Home at the Club Lusitano and this morning, in addition to prominent members of the Portuguese community, there were present: Sir Claude Severn, Colonial Secretary, and Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher, Mr. H. T. Oresay and Mr. C. McI. Messer, Capt. Swinton, A.D.C. to H.E. the Governor and the A.D.C. to His Excellency the General commanding the forces in China. Among the Portuguese attending in official capacities were the Rev. Father Spada, the Bishop of Macao, the President of the Club de Recreio (Mr. E. V. M. R. de Sousa), the President of the Club Lusitano (Mr. A. B. Silva-Netto) and the President of the Association Socorro Mutuo (Mr. C. A. da Rosa) and the secretary, Mr. Almeida. A special film featuring Portuguese actors and the ideals for which the Portuguese Unknown Soldier-in-common with others laid down his life will be at the Star Theatre at 5.20 p.m. to-day.

THE WEATHER.
FORECAST FOR NEXT 24 HOURS.
ANOTHER ANTI-CYCLONE.
For the 24 hours ending at noon to-morrow, the local weather forecast by the Observatory is:—East winds, moderate; cloudy, occasional rain. For the Formosa Channel it is:—North winds, moderate. The weather report says:—Pressure has increased slightly over North Japan, Shanghai, the lower Yangtze and the Bonin; it has decreased slightly elsewhere. The anticyclone has passed into the Pacific and there are indications of the formation of another over China.

MALARIA SCOURGE.
INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OPENS.
TRIBUTES TO BRITAIN. (Reuter's Service.)
Rome, October 4.
The inaugural meeting of the International Congress on malaria has opened at the Capitol. The Premier, M. Mussolini, and a large number of international experts on malaria were present, including representatives from Burma, India and the Malay States. Signor Mussolini paid a high tribute to Britain and her dominions for their striking example and collaboration in fighting the scourge of malaria. The Argentine delegate proposed the establishment of an international anti-malaria institute at Rome to collect world-wide information and to undertake research work for the redemption of infected regions and to organise practical teaching for the training of malaria specialists. The Italian delegate promised that Italy would support the proposal and was ready to provide a building and supply funds towards the organisation of an institute. The Congress approved the proposal and entrusted its council to draw up a scheme. The Board of Education is to sit at 4 p.m. this Wednesday. Shanghai, October 4.—The telegraph strike has been settled. Reuter.

LOCAL CRICKET.

SEVERAL MATCHES ON SATURDAY.

"FRIENDLY" MATCHES.

The last Hongkong interprovincial team that won by 7 runs at Shanghai is to meet a picked team from the H.K.C.C. on the Club ground this Saturday.

Last Saturday several interesting games were played and a few have shown good form already.

H.K.C.C. Match.

With twelve players in a side, Mr. T. E. Pearce's team defeated Mr. R. E. A. Webster's team by 52 runs.

The game commenced at 2 p.m. and Pearce's team batted first, compiling 180 runs. Stewart was top scorer with 55, which included eight boundary hits and a sixer. Others to reach double figures were Brig.-Gen. Macnaughton (30), Burns (23) and Vallack (11).

Bowler captured six of the wickets for 55 runs, and Owen Hughes three for 31.

Humphreys (40) was the outstanding batsman in Webster's team. Lammert and Owen Hughes also helped the score with 17 runs each.

In bowling Vallack secured the best average with six wickets for 41 runs, the balance being shared by Parker (3 for 34) and McNicoll (2 for 18).

K.C.C. v. R.A.

A Local Victory.

The Kowloon Cricket Club opened their season with a very pleasant game with the R.A., which resulted in a win for Kowloon by 131-57. For the K.C.C. Capt. Morris played well for his 26 and Goodwin hit very hard for 43. Goodwin bowled brilliantly, taking eight of the R.A.'s wickets for 33.

A pleasing feature of the game was the accuracy and keenness of the K.C.C. fielding.

UNIVERSITY v. HERMES.

The University had as visitors on their ground at Pokfulam a team from H.M.S. "Hermes," and easily proved their superiority.

The "Hermes" batted first and were disposed of for 52 runs, the bowling being very good.

The University followed and all the batsmen with one exception reached double figures. Two men retired, Ng with 54, highest score and the total was 214 runs for 7 wickets, when they declared their innings closed.

The visitors were sent in a second time and had made 52 at the expense of four wickets when owing to falling light play stopped were drawn.

LAWN TENNIS.

KOWLOON C.C. "MIXED DOUBLES."

A mixed tennis tournament on the American principle will commence at the Kowloon Cricket Club on Sunday, October 18, and thereafter on the third Sunday of each month.

Two teams will be drawn and the members on the losing side will defray the cost of silver spoons for the ladies on the winning side.

This is a pleasing innovation that should do much to sustain the interest in lawn tennis during the cricket season.

Miss Mercedes Gietze, a 24-year-old typist of Belgrave-road, Pimlico, had to give up her attempt to win the Channel Island Tennis Cup at August 25, owing to an attack of cramp after covering about 24 miles.

CRAIGENGOWER CLUB'S "AT HOME."

BOWLS LEAGUE CHAMPIONS.

For their "At Home" on Saturday, the Craigenower Cricket Club's clubhouse and grounds accommodated a large number of members, their friends, and visitors, the last named including representatives from the leading bowling Clubs of the Colony who availed themselves of the invitation to come and beat Craigenower on their own ground.

Five rink games between teams from the Craigenower Cricket Club and the "Rest" occupied the afternoon. The visiting teams were the Civil Service C.C., the Kowloon C.C., the Kowloon Bowling Green Club, the Kowloon Recreation Club, and the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club. The home teams all played a good game, and only Talkoo were able to show their old form by recording a win.

The results in the rink games were as under:—

C.C.C. v. C.S.C.C.

This resulted in an easy win for the C.C.C., who led all the way and made the final score, 30-14.

C.C.C. v. K.C.C.

The K.C.C. played with a weakened team, their best bowlers being engaged elsewhere in a Spey Cup competition match. They were three up on the eighth head and one down in the twelfth. The game up to this point was very interesting and uncertain, but the C.C.C. started to leave the visitors behind and won 32-15.

C.C.C. v. K.B.G.C.

This game provided a wide difference. C.C.C. (Basa, skip) winning by 36-7. The K.B.G.C. scored in the sixth, fourteenth and last four heads only. Craigenower's position was 13-1 sixth head, and 28-1 thirteenth head. The K.B.G.C. also had a weakened team, with their best players taking part in a Spey Cup game elsewhere.

PRIZES AND SPEECHES.

After the bowls games an adjournment was made to the Club house where the presentation of prizes won by members of Craigenower Cricket Club in various branches of sport was made.

Prior to calling upon Mrs. Bradbury to make the presentations Mr. R. Basa (Hon. Secretary) expressed on behalf of the Club his thanks to the visiting Clubs for being present and providing such good sport. He also thanked the ladies for their attendance.

Mrs. Bradbury, who was applauded, then gave away the prizes, the list being:—

Cricket Batting Average—T. Grimes.

Cricket Bowling Average—S. Abbas.

Tennis Scratch Singles—J. W. Leonard; E. Fischer.

Tennis Singles Handicap—J. Leonard; B. Bradbury.

Doubles Handicap—H. J. Howard; and A. Remedios; V. Souza and F. K. Modi.

Mixed Doubles (American tournament)—E. Fischer and Miss Bradbury; M. and Mrs. Bradbury.

Billiards Winter Handicap—A. Kitchell; E. Basa.

Billiards Summer Handicap—A. Basa; B. Bradbury.

Lawn Bowls Club Handicap—G. Green; H. J. Howard.

Lawn Bowls Open Singles.

H. J. Dennis; G. Green. Pairs—R. Basa and E. Arculli; R. W. Lee and A. Kitchell.

Rink—A. Grimmett, A. K. Taylor, W. E. Rose, A. Gillard, R. Basa, D. Fritz, G. H. Sellwood, L. C. Sousa.

Best League Rink—A. Macfarlane, H. J. Dennis, C. S. Rosset, W. B. Musket.

Silver spoons were presented to the winners in the afternoon's games, including the Talkoo team. Mr. A. Macfarlane (Hon. Secretary of the Lawn Bowls Association) then introduced Mrs. D. Gow, who, he said, had kindly consented to present the championship shield and the medals won by the Craigenower Cricket Club this year.

The shield was received on behalf of the Club by Mr. B. W. Bradbury (Vice-President) amid applause.

Mr. D. Gow, as President of the Lawn Bowls Association, was next asked to say a few words. He thought that he had never in his life had such a large gathering to talk to, and he asked to be forgiven if he did not make a success of it.

He said that he had been asked to take the place of Mr. J. Reid, a past President, who had presented the trophy in the first division of the League competition. Mr. R. M. Dyer had presented the shield for the second division, which would be given away some other time.

The Craigenower Cricket Club, he said, were to be congratulated on their achievement in topping the League this year. He considered that for a Club of five years' standing they had done wonderfully well. They had won two open championships, and last year were runners-up, and that took a lot of beating. (Applause.) He hoped that the championship pennant which was flying in the Club would be a permanent thing, and that the members would do their best to keep it flying, as some other Clubs would do their best to get it.

Mr. Gow also expressed his thanks for the honour paid by asking Mrs. Gow to present the trophy and medals, and wished the Club every success in the coming years. (Applause.)

Mr. Bradbury also expressed his thanks on behalf of his wife. He said that all would agree that the prizes were handsome. Quite a lot of the prizes had been given by members and friends of the Craigenower Cricket Club and he would take that opportunity to thank them for their generosity.

He referred to Mr. Gow's remarks and extended an open invitation to the visitors at the same time and for the same purpose next year, and asked them to bear the invitation in mind.

The proceedings closed with cheers for the guests, especially the ladies, and dancing was then proceeded with, being kept up with much vim to a late hour.

LAWN BOWLS.

COMPETITION FOR SPEY CUP.

Playing on the Police Recreation Club ground on Saturday, the Kowloon C.C. repeated their previous week's performance by defeating the Kowloon Dock R.C. in the Spey Cup Competition.

The K.C.C. were four down on the ninth head, but after being two up in the fourteenth the K.D.R.C. drew level in the next (12 all). The K.C.C. took the lead and ran out easy winners by 20-13.

C.S.C.C. v. K.B.G.C.

On the Kowloon Cricket Club's bowling green the Civil Service Cricket Club met the Kowloon Bowling Green Club. The Civil Service were first to find the jack; and they led by the respectable margin of 8-1 at the fourth head. The Bowling Green soon reduced this lead and got level at the seventh head (8-8). A keen tussle followed, only a point or two separating the contestants until the thirteenth head when the Bowling Green led by 16-11. The Civil Service drew up to within a point in the succeeding head (15-16), but only got four points more, leading at the seventeenth head by 19-17. In each of the last four heads the Bowling Club had the advantage and won by 24-19, a majority of five points.

URGENT CHINA NEEDS.

In a small place like Hongkong
the value of road communications has easily been demonstrated.
The Empire Press Conference has been urging the importance of cheap cable communications. On top of these facts comes a little booklet, called "Better Communications. By Ministry of Communications; being proposals on Improvements and Reorganisation of Means of Communications Submitted to Rehabilitation Conference, Held in 1925." It is impossible not to write a word in praise of the language of this interesting document; of its excellent English and phrasing, relieved twice by a reminder of its Chinese source by such things as —"several scores of years," and—
"A loud cry of suffering rose from the people." But the reader cannot get away from the fact that the document is a very damning indictment of the Government of the Republic, made more so by the fact that it is inspired by foreigners and comes from the pen of Yeh Kung-cho, Minister of Communications. The necessity and the value of road communications have, ere this, been voiced. There is a Chinese organization in existence favouring the utilization of the Boxer Indemnity for the purpose of making roads

The Minister iterates the fact that "too much emphasis cannot be placed on the importance of development of the means of communications." He mentions three classifications: (1) Indirect Production Policy: to help agricultural and industrial development by means of communications. (2) Direct Production Policy. (Communication systems are made to yield revenue for the benefit of the national treasury)
(3) Relative Production Policy, a combination of the above two policies, aiming at agricultural, industrial and economical development of the country as well as the gain to national treasury.
The Minister is convinced, "in view of the poverty of the Government, on the one hand, and the backwardness of our industries and commerce, on the other,
the Relative Productive Policy, is, therefore, the most suitable for China." China has completed only 6,000 miles of railways, 80,000 miles of telegraph lines, 13
wireless stations and 26 telephone offices, "during the last several scores of years since she was first opened to foreign trade." The total registration of privately owned commercial vessels is approximately only 410,000 tons.
Prior to the fifth year of the republic the communication enterprises of the Government were able to maintain themselves and show steady improvement. Since then the Government has given little financial aid. Most of the capital required was raised by foreign loans—a list, a truly formidable one—is given of these —"and the enterprises have been, therefore, burdened from the beginning with heavy debts." High military leaders in the provinces, we are told, have mistaken
the system of communications as their own instruments of warfare, and placed these systems under their own control. They have commandeered railway rolling stock, telegraph lines and vessels.
"Still worse, they have often operated the official systems of communications for their own profit with great detriment to trade and industry." It is estimated that up to the end of the 18th year of the Republic no less than $180,000,000 has been appropriated, seized and taken away in one way or other by different forces. "If interest on this amount is calculated, the total amount comes to $250,000,000."

Much more of a similarly damaging character is to be found in the booklet, affording additional argument to those who do not love China or who question if any good can come out of her. But this apart, it is impossible not to admire the honesty and sincerity of the Chinese Minister of Communications, and to wish him success in his arduous and responsible office. Only fools will disagree with his statement: "For a modern society communications are as indispensable as water and air to human life. Without them civilization steps back immediately to the medieval ages."

THEY SAY THAT—

Children are beginning to love school. I look forward to a

LEVITZKI RECITAL.

NOTABLE THEATRE ROYAL
EVENT.

CHOPIN AND BEETHOVEN.

Mischa Levitzki is interpreter
as well as pianist. The distinction needs to be made. It was demonstrated at Saturday's recital,
from the organ toccata of Bach-Tausig—a composition which should be kept to the organ—the beautiful melody from "Orfeo and his lute," to the noisy, thunderous composé of Maygar melodies contained in Liszt's Rhapsody, No. 6.
Chopin's music lends itself to the art of the interpreter and it was in the cycle of Chopin nocturnes, etudes, Waltz and Scherzo, that
M. Levitzki gave most pleasure.
It has been said that until Corot painted the twilight, it did not exist. It might be said that until Chopin composed the fanciful in music, it did not exist. In the Nocturne, F sharp major (op. 15
No. 2) the player with a superb delicacy of treatment brought out the sadness and melancholy of the theme, and the richly decorated ornamentation of the music. The Waltz in A flat (op. 64, No. 3) was another wonderful thing. It is for superior souls who dance with intellectual joy, with the joy that comes of making exquisite patterns and curves. Such was the picture the artist portrayed. The butterfly etude is graceful and very effective. Here we have the fleeing, fluttering life of a butterfly. M. Levitzki merits strictures in that, like all modern virtuosi, he pulled to pieces the wings of the gay little butterfly, making it the stamping ground for the display of piano athletics.

The first part of the programme concluded with Beethoven's now well-known Appassionata Sonata.
The composition has been called "a volcanic eruption, which rends the earth and shuts out the sky with a shower of projectiles." A deep passionate note sounds unceasingly throughout the first movement; a calm beauty in the Andante, with its variations and immense vitality in the finale. It is interesting to know that for a clue to this sonata, Beethoven referred an enquirer to Shakespeare's Tempest. M.
Levitzki played, not as with "the indifferent temperaments of mere finger players," but as a present the immense force of the ideas contained in the Sonata.
It has to be added that the audience was fairly numerous, and deeply appreciative, and that M. Levitzki's recital was a success. It is good news that he is to give another recital on Thursday next.

How a man's private life may inflict immense damage on the cause to which he devotes his public career may be seen in the case of Charles Stewart Parnell. When he entered Westminster in 1875 the Home Rule cause looked hopeless.
Ten years later it had been taken up by Mr. Gladstone. The wonderful, if unscrupulous, leadership of Parnell was the great reason of the change. He had then a remarkable reputation.
Shander, lies—all failed against him, and only left him stronger.
Then he went and threw away all that for a woman, for the sake of an intrigue with the wife of his friend. Gladstone advised his retirement, but he would not listen. The party elected Justin McCarthy as leader, but Parnell held on with the rump. In less than a year, however, he was dead
—died of a broken heart, said

The "Daily Press"
has followed the
"China Mail's"
lead in drawing attention to the number of motor accidents and breakage of traffic regulations in the Colony—particularly those which necessitate Police Court enquiry. A recent copy of the London "Daily Chronicle" in commenting on motor accidents in England, makes the following observation:—
It is possible, of course, to punish persons who drive to the danger of the public. But there is no regulation which can abolish immorality. And to drive a car recklessly and badly is emphatically an immoral act.
It is not necessarily mere speed which constitutes the danger.

On Monday we went shopping in the bazaar. Such quaint shops.
Behind the shops tower the goma
and castle of the King of Sikkim.
We went into two big Tibetan merchants' houses—into their big open upstairs reception-rooms, where carpets, cushions, and quaint divans were arranged for guests, beautiful metal pots of Lhasa beaten-work, priceless cloisonné china (from China), furs, and turquoise which are sold by weight.

We went to the Residency,
which is next the Mission Compound, and since it is the old Palace, is a beautiful house, with a quaint, painted, Chinese arch at the entrance, and the grass lawns are studded with chortans. There is a wood of beautiful trees, the biggest in Leh, and from the flagstaff in front a wonderful view of blue hills through the green and the sandy-yellow valley below.

A party of us.... went over the castle and monastery on the hill behind. After a very steep climb up the face of the rock, we were rewarded with the view of Leh spread out below with its green crops, and the desert peaks beyond. At last we reached the castle, built into the rock ledges.
We went in, then up queer little twisted corners and no less than eight different sets of steps and ladders to the courtyard—the largest square of the castle, used for religious dancing.

It was open on one side for the view, and a sheer drop over the edge of the parapet to the little mud houses of Leh at the foot of this great natural fortification.
On three sides were more storeys built up into the rock behind.
We went through long dirty stable-like passages, turnings, windings, quaint doorways without doors, up more rickety stairs, and into the "chapel," or altar-room of the King—when he is in residence. Just now all was empty, as he is at Sikkim most of the summer. Stepping over the threshold of the doorway, we found ourselves in the "chapel" built in the rock and were met with the same shut-up, dank, smell of incense and burning, rancid butter.

The lama who was showing us over lighted two little "butter lamps" on the altar of the row of ten or twelve that stood there, and we could see round a bit. On either side were rows of prayer holes in wood cases, containing old books. On the wall were again paintings of men, beasts, and demons, and writing, much worn. Behind the altar were three large gods, and smaller ones
on either side....
When we came out again and climbed up more passages and ladders, we finally reached the top roof, and felt ourselves really on "the Roof of the World," for Leh is higher than Lhasa actually. Leh is eleven thousand six hundred feet....
There is, however, one higher point than the castle, to which we now went on. Leaving the castle by its "front" entrance, on the other side, under the quaint old Chinese shaped porch, we climbed up the rock and shale on the side of the hill.... We trudged past the old ruins of the former monastery to the present one on the highest point of this hill overlooking Leh....
We went into the altar-room,
which has in its porch on either side prayer wheels which they turn on entering. Inside the same altar, butter-lights burning, idols in the dim light, paintings
on the wall....
A Buddhist pigtailed pony-man who was with us here stepped in front of the altar and the gods sitting behind it, bent, knelt, bowed his head on the ground, and worshipped. He did this again, then rising from his prostrate position, he kissed the idol's foot....
We went into another big altar-room built separate, and which held a far larger idol, some twenty-five feet high, made of clay or stucco. Here it was that the lama told us the idol had been made there, in the temple, as it was too large to make below and then bring up the hill. The upper storey was open, for the head and shoulders of the idol to extend up-through. Outside this upper part runs a balcony—a little, narrow, shaky wooden ledge overhanging the precipitous cliff. Prayer wheels, some fifteen or so, are all round the edge, and on certain occasions priests and people do the circle, going round and round and always one way, saying rapidly as many times as possible—for their (also their) much speaking "Om Mani Padme Hum." There is only room for one person at a time round this prayer wheel. One had the feeling of being perched on the edge of a cliff, with nothing below, a place below called "Hell." A start in the old books. On the wall were

"RED" MENACE.

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT'S VIEW.

A WORLD ISSUE.

FURTHER HANDLING REQUIRED HERE?

In an article appearing in "The Patriot," Harriet Osgood Taylor, whose name is well-known in Hongkong through her former residence here—she is the wife of a former Harbour Master—and her upturns in connection with the work of restoring devastated areas in France, urges the Government to consider the influence of Bolshevism in China, which she terms as the gravest possible menace to China and civilization itself. "The various wars between North and South," she states, "the constant strikes (far too trivially handled by the British Government in Hongkong, as those who know say there are all symptoms of the same disease—the virus of Revolution injected into a body already disordered).

The article is headed "Reaping the Whirlwind in China" and is as follows:

It is small satisfaction to one who still owns a house and other interests in the British Crown Colony of Hongkong and sees their value deteriorating steadily under the weight of trade depression caused by Chinese strikes and British Governmental weakness to be able to say, "I told you so," as regards the cause. But eighteen years' residence in the Far East, in the Philippines, Japan, and Java, as well as in China, has shown me that until the several Governments concerned meet the challenge of the insidious force which is making for disintegration—often than not in the guise of wished-for reforms—civilization itself as well as sane government is threatened.

ROOT TROUBLE.

In one way or another the whole East is smouldering, ready to blaze. In the Philippines the United States now understand that they must clear out or govern. Unable at such a distance to do the latter, they will probably retire without loss of face—so important in the Orient—by selling the islands to Japan. This would be excellent for everyone, especially the Filipinos, who would be governed firmly and unambiguously, while the Japanese, overcrowded to bursting at home, would here find room for national expansion, ceasing to arouse suspicion in America's, Australia's, and Holland's neighbourly breasts. The Dutch in Java live on the ever-sizzling hills of political as well as physical volcanoes, and China's complete Bolshevization would doubtless destroy them more effectively than even another Krakatau eruption would. The French in Indo-China, the British in Singapore and Borneo are equally threatened. Japan, the only Eastern nation which has realised the danger, but who, owing to the success of the sinister plot which ruptured the Anglo-Japanese Alliance and betrayed the British Navy in Washington three years ago, has at last been forced into the arms she wished to escape—of the blood-smearing Bolshevists.

The warnings in China, as at home, have been many. Bolshevists are now working openly where formerly they acted through secret societies. Philanthropy in dealing with the dangerous situation which has been permitted thereby to develop has hastened the crisis. Much nonsense is talked and written about "National Aspirations," "Emancipation of Foreigners," "Factory Conditions," "Child Labour," and all the rest of the formulae to incite and excite revolution. There may be some deluded people who really believe in them, just as there were when Ireland was dismembered and the veins of the British Empire opened to ensure her slow but not painless demise. No one worth arguing with believes it is anything but Bolshevism that inspires this trouble, which, wittingly or not—again as in Ireland, Egypt, and India—our own Government has complicitly helped.

In spite of a truncated navy, an unbuilt base at Singapore, a weak army, without our ally Japan, and, I fear, with false friends working against us in China, we must nevertheless act. Bolshevism must be destroyed, or it will destroy us.

FINDING A REMEDY.

In finding a remedy for all ills, physical, moral, or political, the first thing to do is to discover the cause. Does China's history show any previous outbreaks of the virulent disease now raging there which would suggest a remedy?

The answer is overwhelmingly affirmative. The revolution now commencing there is like cancer, and just as the two men who recently announced the discovery of a virus which, in conjunction with an already diseased body, is the probable cause of that world scourge, so Mrs. Webster, in her remarkable series of books dealing with revolution, has discovered the germ, by which, in conjunction with an already diseased system, revolutions may be propagated.

China is said to possess the oldest world issue.

DEBTS STIR.

ALLEGED PREMATURE PUBLICATION.

SOMEONE'S INDISCRETION?

(Reuter's Service.)

Paris, Oct. 4.

The alleged premature revelation of the French offer at Washington after M. Chailan had apparently promised secrecy, has caused considerable stir in the French press. While official quarters, and a large section of the Press agree in considering that if there was any indiscretion, which is yet not unproved, it anyway could not have played any part in causing the rejection of the French proposals.

Various other journals view the matter differently. For instance, the "Matin" correspondent, referring to the tone of the communication issued at the White House says the communiqué clearly shows that all the misfortune is the result of an indiscretion on Wednesday evening by the official press agent accredited by M. Chailan.

The "Quotidien" denies the report that its director was the person at Washington responsible for the alleged premature disclosure, and says that what happened was that the American Debt Commission in a plenary session disavowed its sub-committee.

URGA GRAB.

RULER'S MILLION ROUBLE ESTATE.

(Reuter's Service.)

Moscow, Oct. 4.

The conference of the Mongolian People's Party at Urga has decided to sequester the property of the late Hu Tkhita Bogdo Khan, the theocratic ruler of Mongolia before it became a republic. The property, which is valued at a million roubles, will be used for educational purposes.

surviving civilisation in the world, but it is not civilised to-day—it is barbarous. Its unnumbered millions are ignorant, superstitious, and oppressed as no other people; except Russians, are oppressed. China's whole history—in spite of its contributions to art, literature, and philosophy—like that of Egypt, is a succession of conquests. She has been eternally ruled by aliens, who, conquering as much by the weakness and corruption of her own people as by force of arms, have in turn themselves been displaced by the same combination of degeneracy and venality at home, force and guile from outside.

Modern history in China, as elsewhere, has but repeated itself, and although, after the Opium Wars of 1840 and 1860, the war with Japan in 1894 and the Boxer rebellion in 1900, her nominal ruler was allowed to remain on the throne, her inner morale steadily deteriorated, and the secret power, silently working like poison in the body politic, prepared the unhappy country for its worst rule of all—the Republic and the brigades and Bolshevists who have succeeded it. China's only honest rule in recent years has come from outside. The extrajurisdiction granted to foreigners—briefly, that they should be tried by their own and not by corrupt Chinese Courts—has been, and more than ever now is, a vital necessity.

All her recent troubles have been propagated through secret societies, and, although this is well known, there seems to be a conspiracy of silence in the Press regarding it, especially in the present crisis. The Boxer Rebellion, with its outbreaks of anti-foreign feeling, was in itself as factious as it was fatal to the policy it advocated of turning out foreigners. The Revolution of 1911 was, from the Chinese point of view—breaking up by civil war an empire which had existed for thousands of years—even more stupid. The nation has been warring against itself ever since—helped always by agitators working through trade guilds as well as through secret societies.

As for the ostensible reasons for the present crisis, they can be dismissed as absurd and in China's own interest, should be. No one who knows conditions in China itself, as well as in the foreign concessions, believes in them. But things are too serious now for further yielding and sentimentality. If the Bolshevist agents who are organising this business are not destroyed, China itself will be. If any foreign States concerned, through apathy, jealousy, self-interest, or blindness, refuse now to face the ugly facts, yields in the smallest degree to the preposterous demands of the agents of that secret controlling force, Bolshevism will slowly but surely triumph over the whole world. Not Treaty Ports and Crown Colonies will go down but whole civilisations. It is a world issue.

DAWN ATTACK.

AIR RAIDS NUMB RIFF TRIBESMEN.

GENERAL ACTION BEGINS.

(Reuter's Service.)

Fez, October 4.

Ninety-eight separate air raids carried out by French machines last night heralded the general action on the French centre sector.

Just before dawn, several columns advanced in the dim light and reached the formidable Senhadja Massif tribesmen, who were apparently numbed and disconcerted by the aerial bombardment which was the first important night operation by aeroplanes in Morocco.

The French advance is developing most favourably. The French occupation is of the height of Saffahar on a front of four kilometres on the Western sector, resulted in the capture of large quantities of munitions.

SPANISH SUCCESS.

London, October 4.

The French Embassy at London has received a telegram from Madrid stating that Spanish troops continue to occupy territory around Ajdir and the bay at Alhucemas without resistance.

They have reached the banks of the river Nekor and captured four more guns and a great quantity of war material.

Note.—This means that practically the whole bay is now in Spanish hands except the promontory of Carquinantes East.

SMALL LOSSES.

Fez, October 4.

The French forces operating against the rebels at Taza "pocket" gained all objectives with insignificant losses.

They are now holding points on the Jebelbouilane preventing any enemy movement in that district.

ANOTHER POINT TAKEN.

Madrid, October 4.

A communiqué states that the French and Spanish troops at Morocco carried out a combined operation in the vicinity of Loikos.

After an intensive bombardment by the French and Spanish artillery, the French troops occupied Saf. Spanish airmen cooperated with the French.

FIGHT TO THE DEATH.

Fez, October 4.

Two French aviators were forced to land among the Riffs. They refused to surrender and died fighting.

Abd el Krim wished them to be captured alive, and consequently shot the six Riffs responsible for the aviator's death.

EARLIER CABLES.

Madrid, October 3.

The newspapers are ecstatic over the capture of Abd el Krim's stronghold, which has been so long a nightmare, and declare that Abd el Krim is now cut off from the sea and from the fertile lands surrounding Ajdir from the Guis to Nekor river, and that he will be compelled to take refuge in the mountain fastnesses, where he will lead a precarious existence, having more reason to fear his allies than his enemies.

The Spaniards have already employed long range guns on the Palorja ridge and are building an aerodrome near Morroqueuo.

FUTURE PERIL.

Paris, October 4.

Speaking at Nimes, concerning the Moroccan war M. Painleve read the text of a peace offer submitted to Abd el Krim on July 18 by France and Spain, granting the Riffian tribes all the autonomy compatible with international treaties. Abd el Krim rejected that offer. We shall therefore continue, he said, our efforts to establish in Morocco an effective and equitable peace, wherein we shall be, neither oppressors nor oppressed. This is the only way to protect ourselves against a peril that would be even greater in the future than it is to-day.

INTERNATIONAL ADVENTURES. Referring to Morocco Mr. Painleve declared that the French zone had been brutally invaded but France was loyal and in accord with Spain would be most generous to the Riffs, who had been promised complete autonomy within the limits of Treaties. But a grant of complete independence would merely re-open the dangerous question of Morocco as a European problem and make Riff the jumpy hunting ground of international adventurers.

M. Painleve read a Franco-Spanish agreement signed on July 18 in which they communicated with Abd el Krim, guaranteeing autonomy and offering to negotiate on a basis of mutual amnesty and delimitation of boundaries, appointment of a police force, prohibition of traffic in arms, demarcation of the sector coast to be occupied by Spain. He said Abd el Krim's agents refused to consider these terms and insisted on absolute independence, this necessitated joint Franco-Spanish action.

FATES OF NATIONS.

LITTLE TOWN'S GREAT ROLE.

LOCARNO AND THE WORLD.

(Reuter's Service.)

Locarno, October 4.

The peaceful little town is agog with excitement at the arrival of so many prominent foreigners for the conference.

The place is swarming with journalists of all nationalities. Special police have been drafted in to maintain order and protect distinguished guests.

All the delegations have now arrived and everything is ready for the conference to-morrow.

Herr Luther, in an interview, expressed confidence that the conference would produce decisive results if the negotiations were carried on in a spirit of mutual goodwill on the basis of equality and reciprocity.

Herr Stresemann said the conference should aim at the re-establishment of sound finances and the promotion of technical progress.

He pointed out that the hegemony of Europe had been definitely destroyed and no single Power any longer was able to pursue a policy of isolation.

He denied hotly that recent conversations with M. Chicherin showed that Germany was seeking an Eastern orientation.

[Locarno is a town in Switzerland, on the upper end of the Lago Maggiore. Its appearance is wholly Italian. The Protestant inhabitants, expelled in 1563, settled chiefly in Zurich, where they introduced the silk industry.]

RUSSIA AND GERMANY.

Paris, October 4.

The "Matin's" Berlin correspondent says that M. Chicherin has proposed to Herr Stresemann to extend the treaty of Rapallo if the Locarno conference does not result favourably for Germany.

This would mean the conclusion of a military alliance, including, if necessary, Poland, but the proposal does not attract the political or military leaders of Germany, although a few big industrialists are in favour.

EARLIER CABLES.

London, October 3.

Mr. Austen Chamberlain has departed to attend the Security Pact Conference at Locarno. Interviewed by Reuter, he said: "Wish me well; don't expect too much."—Reuter.

Berlin, October 3. The Papal Nuncio, as doyen of the Diplomatic Corps, and the British, French and Italian ambassadors saw off the German delegates going to Locarno at the station. This was the first time since the War that foreign diplomats had been present at the departure of any German delegation. Extraordinary precautions were taken to keep the time of the departure of the special train secret.

CHICHERIN'S OUTBURST.

Signs of the Soviet's anxiety at Germany's participation in the Locarno conference are forthcoming in an interview with M. Chicherin published in the "Berliner Tageblatt," wherein the strongest anti-British sentiments are expressed. Chicherin said the present situation in European politics was the result of British enmity towards the Soviet and that England's Pact policy was part of her fundamental anti-Soviet activity. That was why Russia watched with growing concern how Germany was falling in the wake of the British plans.

No doubt it was against the wish of the German Government, but it was questionable whether England would not succeed in forcing her anti-Soviet policy on Germany. So far as the pact campaign was concerned, England's aim was to obtain the position of arbiter of the Continent.

Chicherin said he found comfort in the belief of the impending signature of the Russo-German trade agreement, which was clear proof of Germany's determination not to deviate from the principles of the Rapallo treaty.

FRENCH POLICY.

Paris, October 4.

M. Painleve speaking at Nimes, declared that Franco-German reconciliation is the cornerstone of European civilization and is still possible if the two peoples are able to overcome mistrust and to believe in each other's sincerity. It is in this spirit that the French Government, faithfully interpreting the wishes of the nation, undertakes the very bold attempt to bring about real peace based on justice.

FRIENDLY HAND.

Paris, October 3.

M. Painleve, in an important speech at Nimes, declared that France's foreign policy "Liberate and Reconcile" was still France's ideal, but reconciliation, to be

EIGHTY ARRESTS.

A WIDESPREAD SPYING ORGANIZATION.

THE HAND OF MOSCOW.

(Reuter's Service.)

Warsaw, October 4.

The political police have arrested at Vojna, near the Soviet frontier, 80 persons belonging to a widespread spying organisation alleged to be acting in behalf of the Soviet, including government officials and soldiers.

Much correspondence from Moscow, large sums in American currency, many false passports, plans and documents, stolen from military offices have been confiscated.

The Press contrasts these discoveries with M. Chicherin's assurances of goodwill.

JUDICIAL ENQUIRY.

COMMISSION MEMBERS ASSEMBLE.

(Reuter's Service.)

Shanghai, October 3.

Sir Henry Gollan, the Hongkong Chief Justice, and Mr. Esmay Johnson, American Chief Justice, members of the Judicial Enquiry Commission, arrived in Shanghai together this morning. The Japanese representative Mr. Justice Suga, arrived last evening. It is expected that the Commission's first sitting will be here on October 7. Quizzes have been raised in Shanghai as to the obligations of the nationals concerned to give evidence. A memorandum from Mr. Palaret points out that by a special King's regulation No. 5 of 1925 Britons refusing to testify are liable to a penalty of £50 or three months' imprisonment with hard labour or both.

COMMISSION'S COMMUNIQUE. Shanghai, October 4.

The International Commission of Judges in a communiqué to the Press invite evidence regarding the character of the disturbances of June 30, secondly on reasons, if any, for anticipating the disorder, thirdly on precautions which might have been taken, fourthly on the measures adopted and finally on the circumstances wherein lives were lost and injuries suffered. The meetings, which will be open to the public, commence on October 7.

WEMBLEY SCAMPER. (Reuter's Service.)

London, October 3.

Anxious to see the Empire Exhibition before it closes, crowds are flocking to Wembley in unexpectedly high numbers. Probably the total will be 10,000,000 by the end of the season. The attraction has been increased by a £100 prize which is awarded daily to the ticket holder most nearly forecasting the attendance and also the Torchlight Tattoo display of impressive grandeur. Nevertheless there are signs of a breaking up of the exhibits. The Hongkong pavilion has decided to close down on October and natives employed therein will sail for home on October 17. Tenders are invited for the sale of the pavilion.

MOSCOW, October 3.—The document has been completed which formally hands over to Great Britain the property of the former British Embassy at Petrograd. Reuter.

Richmond, October 3.—All those entombed in the tunnel on the Chesapeake-Ohio railway have been rescued except seven. Many survivors are injured. Reuter's American Service.

Hankow, October 4.—At the resumed meeting yesterday between the Chinese and British authorities in connection with the Hankow incident a virtual settlement was reached. Regarding those points which are being discussed locally the actual terms of the settlement are not available. Reuter.

Atlantic City, October 3.—The dispute between the Bricklayers and Plasterers Unions, which has lasted for four years and tied up huge building operations in New York and elsewhere, has ended with the signing of an agreement drafted by the President of the Federation of Labour. Reuter's American Service.

come possible in Europe, must first be realised on the Rhine. Franco-German reconciliation was the corner stone of European civilisation and such a reconciliation was possible, despite their century old grudges, if the two peoples would wipe out mistrust and believe mutually in each other's sincerity. It was in this spirit that the French Government, as a faithful interpreter of the nation, was about to make at Locarno the most enterprising attempt at real peace which any one had dared since the Armistice.

More Women drive Buicks than any other car because of the striking appearance of this famous motor car. Then comes Buick dependability. A woman knows when she starts out with her Buick that she will "get there and back." Other reasons are—the comfort in driving a Buick—the velvet clutch action, easy steering; then the power and quietness of Buick's Valve-in-Head engine and the safety of Buick mechanical four-wheel brakes.

A nil return of notifiable diseases has to be recorded for the 24 hours ended Friday last.

Three-quarters of the profits of the "Chicago Daily-News" are to be used for benevolent purposes, according to the will of the deceased proprietor, Mr. Victor E. Lawson. The remaining quarter of the profits goes to Mr. Lawson's brother. The "Daily News" is to be administered by the Illinois Merchants' Trust Company.

Samples analysed under the Sale of Food and Drugs Ordinance during the quarter ended September 30 were 63 of milk, nine of bread, 15 of tinned food, two of coffee and one of each of several other commodities, the total number examined being 96. The only adulterations were two of milk and one each of vinegar and camphorated oil.

The Association game of football now has a large feminine following, though women are not so prominent in this connection as they are at big Rugby matches. The woman football enthusiast, however, is not so great a novelty as some folk imagine. The Luton club, for instance, boasts a lady supporter who has not missed a home match for well over twenty years.

Britain's first and only Mosquito Control Institute at Hongkong has been opened by Sir Ronald Ross, who discovered that malaria is carried by mosquitoes. Four years ago Hayling Island was becoming impossible as a summer resort owing to the ravages of the mosquitoes whose breeding haunts are the salt marshes. Now mosquitoes are rare in Hayling Island, and bathing and sitting out in gardens has again become as safe as pleasant. This is due to the work of Mr. J. F. Marshall, a resident of the island, who, at his own cost, turned his house and grounds into a sort of general headquarters for the destruction of the mosquito army.

The Peak Church is now in a state of almost complete renovation. Handsome oak doors have replaced the old ones which were of inferior wood, both the inside and outside of the building have been carefully repaired and re-coloured. The Committee of the Peak Church are indebted to Lady Pollock, for her help and advice. Dr. Sanders assisted and Mr. E. M. P. Sample, the Hon. Architect, is to be congratulated upon the excellent results.

The famous "No. 10" is undergoing an autumn cleaning during the Parliamentary recess, but it extends in only a minor degree to Mrs. Stanley Baldwin's private apartments—though the carpets must have needed a good deal of attention after the many parties she gave during the season. In many ways No. 11, Downing Street, is much preferable to No. 10 as a residence; living at the Prime Minister's official house is rather like living in a maisonette above offices. There is, for instance, no direct route from the private rooms to the garden as there is at No. 11, and this is a real deprivation, since the garden is a pleasant place with a shady lawn and many trees. Flowers do quite well there in spite of a preponderance of shrubs.

Constantinople.—Innovation after innovation follows the trend of the times in new Turkey. By order of the prefect, the picturesque night watchmen of Constantinople must shave off their flowing beards and crop their long hair. Also they must replace their varicoloured turbans and scarfs and baggy trousers with a uniform resembling that of the regular police. The beat of their long iron-tipped sticks on the cobblestones is ended. The sticks have been confiscated and the policeman's "bikdji" substituted. The watchmen or "bikdjis" have collected gratuities from householders on their beats instead of receiving regular wages. Now they will get regular wages.

The enrolment of students at St. John's (Christian) University at Shanghai this term is considerably below the normal total of 700, reports the "China Press." This is a result of the students' agitation.

A joint of roast beef infected by certain germs is believed to have been responsible for the acute sickness of 22 visitors and the death of one lady guest staying at a boarding-house at Countisbury, on the borders of Exmoor.

"England is" terribly overcrowded," said an old Boer. "There are so many people that you wonder how they all obtain money and food to keep themselves alive. They seem to be tumbling over each other. It is terrible to see them jostle and scramble for seats in the train. Goodness only knows what happens to any one who is knocked down in the rush."

Manufacture of liquors containing 60 per cent. of alcohol and vodka of 40 per cent. will be permitted in Soviet Russia from October 1, under a decision reached by the central executive committee. The right to manufacture alcoholic drinks is granted to private firms, as well as the State and co-operative distilleries and sale is permitted throughout the Soviet Federation.

A group of Moscow actors and artists, headed by such well-known actors of the Moscow Art Theatre as Stanislavsky, Nemirovich-Danchenko, Kachaloff and Moskvina, have organized a building co-operative for the purpose of building in Moscow a "Home of the Actor and Artist." The house will contain apartments for the members of the co-operative; there will be a cabaret on the lower floor and the artists will give performances on the roof, which will be built with this purpose in view.

The dramatisation of "Tess of the d'Urbervilles," the noted novel by Thomas Hardy, Nestor of English novelists has taken London by storm. "Transocean Radio."

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, the British Labour leader and ex-Premier, has been suffering from gout, his thumbs being completely stiffened. The Transocean Radio reports that he has been operated on by a homeopathic healer.

There are signs, writes a correspondent in the "Malay Mail," that the housing problem in Seremban is again becoming acute, and the shortage of European bungalows is emphasised by the number of enquiries "almost daily for residential quarters."

Miss Simone Fleisher, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Fleisher of Tokyo, was married in Philadelphia on September 15, to Mr. Jack Stecker of Philadelphia. The couple will live in Philadelphia. Mr. B. W. Fleisher, the father of the bride is the editor and publisher of "The Japan Advertiser."

It is not usual to bestow decorations on enemy subjects, but General Allan, who commanded the American occupation forces in the Rhineland, has been awarded an honorary Doctor's Degree by the Medical College of Frankfurt University. The Transocean Radio says that this honour is in recognition of his services in improving hygienic conditions in his area.

Prince George is stated to have greatly admired the art objects he inspected in Tokyo and on expressing a wish to see the treasures of the beautiful kimono displayed the party drove to the Imperial Theatre, where the play of "Yashiki Goten" in which Bonine (surrounded by a number of her attendants) plays an important role, was being staged.

Among the passengers who left by the a.s. "Taiyo Maru" yesterday were Mr. E. J. de Figueiredo, Jr., for Yokohama, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. da Rocha, Miss Laura H. da Rocha, Miss A. M. da Rocha, Miss C. M. da Rocha, for Shanghai.

Unlike Hongkong, the Shanghai Committee of the Ministering Children's League wish to announce that they have abandoned their autumn entertainment for this year in view of other enterprises in which so many of their members are actively engaged.

I was an eye-witness of an amusing incident at Le Touquet the other morning, says a Home writer. I had accompanied a friend to a large modiste's to purchase a Spanish shawl, and whilst she was in the midst of choosing one with the aid of the chief vendeuse a magnificent silver-grey Rolls Royce drew up at the door. A large but handsome lady slowly descended and entered the shop, where she gave us an expansive and all-embracing smile prior to remarking, deliberately, in a singularly penetrating voice, "Say, folks, is there anyone here who speaks the American language?"

Charlie Chaplin's mother is to be allowed to stay in America. The case has been before the Labour Department since 1921. Meanwhile the old lady has lived quietly in the comfortable Californian bungalow provided for her by her sons. Now, in response to a wave of popular feeling in favour of Mrs. Chaplin's remaining, the authorities have found a way to wriggle round the immigration laws. Mrs. Chaplin's health is not good owing to the hardships she suffered while bringing up her sons in London before Chaplin became famous.

Cyril Toller, who has already begun to make a name for himself in the world of tennis, refused to commit himself when asked whether he thought it was a better game than golf. "When I am playing golf I think it the best game in the world," said he, "and when I am playing tennis I think it the best game in the world. I can imagine croquet being equally absorbing—and possibly tidily-winks!"

A former member of the household of President Coolidge nearly died of convulsions at a Lyan hospital the other day. Paul Fry, an Airedale, exiled to the "devil dogs" two months ago for bad behaviour at White Court, brought the illness on himself by over-indulgence in shellfish. The official bulletin said he was resting comfortably, but "suffering from ptomaine poisoning."

Insistent on proving that, whatever he might have said to his daughter, it was less than half enough, Arthur Cohen, a plumber of New York, introduced the girl in Court, and pronounced her an exhibit for the defence in his efforts to clear himself of a charge of using abusive language. "Look here, judge," Cohen demanded, and then, with the girl as the example, he launched upon a tirade against his friends, paint, powder and petting parties.

Not since the days of the tango controversy has there been so much discussion about any new dance as there is now concerning "The Charleston." Dance experts themselves are divided in opinion as to whether it really will become the chief favourite of the ballroom during the winter. Some who deny the charges of vulgarity which other folk bring against "The Charleston" consider that it is more an exhibition than a social dance.

Mrs. Wilson Carey, of Garden City, Long Island, is now in London, and recently she gave a luncheon to business men of her own calling. White-haired and beautifully dressed, one would not guess that Mrs. Carey is, in fact, president of a great, popular-making firm which employs 4,000 hands. "There was nothing unusual about my man's lunch," she said. "I have to give a luncheon lunch five times a week in America. Most times are the best times to do business."

S. A. RUMJAHN IN TENNIS FINAL.

YESTERDAY'S MATCH.

The lawn tennis open doubles champions of the Colony were in opposition to one another, playing in singles yesterday when S. A.

S. A. Rumjahn.

Rumjahn won in three straight sets from H. D. Rumjahn, in the first semi-final of the Indian Recreation Club open singles.

S. A. won by 6-2, 6-2, 6-3. H. D. was unfortunate in not striking form and, of course, did not play his usual good game. S. A., on the other hand, played his best match for a very long time.

H. D. Rumjahn.

In the first set, S. A. led 3-0, 3-1, 4-2 and 6-2. The score in the second set was (in favour of the winner) 2-0, 2-1, 4-1, 4-2 and 6-2. After being 0-3 in the third set, H. D. (the younger of the pair) took one game, 1-5, and lost the next two, 1-5; he then staved off defeat by winning two games, 3-5 but S. A. was not to be denied and annexed the next game, set and match.

DOINGS AT HOME.

EX-HONGKONG CRICKETERS IN ENGLAND.

Several cricketers who have figured prominently in Hongkong, have continued to do well in cricket at home.

In the two-day match at Lord's which concluded on August 25, and on which there was no play on the first day owing to rain, the Royal Air Force had the better of a draw with the Royal Navy.

The senior service battled first and were dismissed for 97. R. A. F. replied with 204 runs for 9 wickets declared. When stumps were drawn the Navy were 48 for 3 in their second innings.

Lieut. J. N. Sparks (spelt Sparks in another place) opened the first Naval innings. He was caught after having made 14 and is believed to have batted well when on the China Station about two years ago.

Sub-Lieut. M. J. Evans (who is said to be related to A. J. Evans of Kent) made 21 and caught two of the R. A. F. men. He is the Midshipman Evans who was, with Pomfret, the Naval fast bowlers of two seasons back.

Flight Lieut. G. E. Livock who, while here on the plane carrier "Pegasus" played for Malays in the triangular interport last year, made 16. He was caught by Sparks and is now Squadron Leader.

When Mrs. Ruth Leonard, 23 years old, the two months bride of John Leonard, is said to have admitted to her husband she abandoned her nameless baby a month before her marriage, John took her to Special Sessions Court and then went her bail.

PRISCILLA AMIDON & STERLING MILLS

A pitiful story of a young couple who decided to kill themselves because they could not marry was revealed by Sterling Mills, 18, who said that his sweetheart, Priscilla Amidon, 16, had killed herself and that he then shot himself in the skull. Both were high school students.

STEPHAN PANARETOFF

Stephan Panaretoff, Minister from Bulgaria, has resigned his post.

Little Blakely Coughlin, whose kidnapping from Norristown stirred a nation five years ago, has been located alive in a North New Jersey town, according to the police. Augusto Pasquale is serving a life term after confessing murder of the child.

Called "McCoy's last friend," Dagmar Dahlgren, eighth wife of Norman Selby, "Kid McCoy," who is in prison for killing Mrs. Theresa Mora, has married her dancing partner, Alexander Klipper. It is her third marriage.

HAROLD HUBBARD

Although only eighteen years of age, Harold Hubbard is city editor.

A short time after he had piloted a giant all-metal airplane to a new world's non-stop flight record, Lieut. James R. Kyle was killed, when he jumped from the wing of a plane only 200 feet in the air and struck the ground just as his test parachute opened.

These three pilots will undertake the dangerous night air mail flights between Cleveland and New York. They are, top to bottom, John F. Miller, Charles M. Adams and Harry A. Chandler.

THOMAS L. AYANT

Thomas L. Ayant, former official of the Klan, has been named as the President of the new Klan, to prevent the Klan from the ground that it would lead to riot and bloodshed.
